Short Bio

Bruna Oliva is an International Law Fellow at IntLaw Consortium LLP. She holds an LL.M. in Public International Law from the University of Amsterdam and is a Brazilian-qualified lawyer with experience in complex civil, commercial, and corporate litigation. Her academic interests include international dispute resolution, international criminal law, human rights, and issues of international responsibility. She has further deepened her training in international law through the 2025 Hague Academy of International Law Summer Courses.

Before joining IntLaw, Bruna served as a Legal Affairs Intern in the General Legal Division of the United Nations Office of Legal Affairs in New York, where she contributed to submissions before the United Nations Appeals Tribunal, drafted legal memoranda and contracts, and conducted research on privileges and immunities, accountability mechanisms, procurement, and arbitration involving United Nations operations. Her prior practice in Brazil included managing complex disputes, leading negotiations, appearing before appellate courts, and coordinating legal strategy in high stakes matters.

At IntLaw, Bruna works across the firm's international law matters. Her portfolio includes collaborating in drafting written submissions for States in international and regional proceedings, preparing legal memoranda and reports for clients, assisting with hearing preparation, and developing materials for capacity-building workshops and other IntLaw events. She also supports the IntLaw Cup as part of the coordination team.
